Rural Life on Film

A collection of archive films produced by Creative Arts East as part of the BFI's Britain on Film project, revealing hidden histories and forgotten stories of people and places across Norfolk and Suffolk, from the UK's film and TV archives.

Narrated by Bernard Hill and Julie Hewitt

Southwold Arts Centre, St Edmunds Hall.

Tickets: £7.50 for films or £15 for films & fish (lunch must be booked in advance)

Available from Southwold Arts Centre & Southwold Library

	A Farmer's Life	Agriculture and farming have always been at the heart of the history of East Anglia. This selection of films bring together classic footage of horses during harvest on a Norfolk farm, new agricultural machinery playing an essential part in the war effort and a light hearted look at the Young Farmers' Club rallies.
Take a trip back to the golden age of the Norfolk and Suffolk Broads. This delightful collection of archive films traces the history of boating and the holiday industry, fishing championships, as well as reed and sedge cutting, that all sum up a picture of Broadland's precious past.	All Aboard the Broads
	All in a Day's Work	This nostalgic collection of films brings back memories of some of the traditional crafts that provided employment for men and women in rural areas. Explore livelihoods in the fens, the essential part in village life held by a blacksmith, wheelwright and saddlers, and the ancient craft of thatching.
Entertainment has its own history and this selection of films look at the variety of ways we have enjoyed the great outdoors over the decades. See a jolly village outing to the Royal Norfolk Show, shooting on the great estates, scenes from Newmarket horse racing, and the wet and muddy art of dyke jumping!	Outdoor Pleasures

All 4 films are shown at both 11.00am and 2.00pm
